

Managing Conflicts of Interest

Webinar workshop

1 June 2021, 09:00 - 12:30

Why attend this workshop?

The president can't have a conflict of interest.

Donald Trump

Conflicts of interest is probably the most talked about ethical issue in South Africa and elsewhere. If the previous President of the United States could display this level of ignorance about conflicts of interest, it stands to reason that uncertainty about the topic is omnipresent. There is equal haziness about how to manage conflicts once they have been identified and disclosed.

The purpose of this workshop is to equip delegates with a focused and structured approach to managing conflicts of interest.

The need for justice grows out of the conflict of human interests. That is to say, if there were no conflict of interests among mankind we should never have invented the word justice, nor conceived the idea for which it stands.

Thomas Nixon Carver (1915).

"Essays in Social Justice"

Who should attend?

- Ethics officers
- All persons that have been tasked to manage ethics in their organisations
- All functionaries that have been tasked to manage conflicts of interest their organisations
- Members of ethics committees
- Executives
- Leaders at all organisational levels
- Ethics champions and ambassadors
- Functionaries of governance clusters (risk, company secretariat, compliance, legal, forensics, internal audit)
- Line managers who regularly have to make decisions about conflicts of interest.

The most difficult thing is to recognize that sometimes we too are blinded by our own incentives. Because we don't see how our conflicts of interest work on us.

Dan Ariely

Topics be covered include:

1. Conflicts of interest as a corporate governance imperative
2. The nature and ethical implications of conflicts of interest
3. How to manage conflicts of interest from A – Z

Workshop format

- Plenary session
- Presentations
- Case studies
- Panel discussion
- Audience participation through Q&A.

MC: Fatima Rawat (TEI)

Presenters

Adv. Fariyal Mukaddam

Along with being a Chartered Director (SA) and an Advocate of the High Court of South Africa, Fay brings extensive strategic leadership experience to the various executive and non-executive roles and positions she has occupied over the years.

Fay was recognised as being the most influential businesswoman in the financial services sector, in South Africa in both 2016 and 2017, and has also been recognized through various awards both nationally and internationally. As a commercial lawyer, Fay has focused primarily on cross-border mergers and acquisitions and transaction advisory services, and consequently specialised in risk, governance and strategy advisory engagements.

Through her relationship with the IoDSA (as technical advisor and subject-matter expert), she has advised and assessed boards (in the private and public sectors) on key business and governance areas through their respective different business phases, and also acts as mentor to individual directors.

Kris Dobie (TEI)

Kris joined TEI in 2007 and is Senior Manager: Organisational Ethics Development. He holds a Master of Philosophy in Workplace Ethics from the University of Pretoria. Kris has worked closely with the South African government in a number of national and provincial initiatives focused primarily on anti-corruption.

Plus: A panel of industry experts that will respond to delegates' questions and share perspectives on leading practice.
